THE PANTHER

A Journey Through Henderson Institute

THE 1964
"PANTHER"

HENDERSON INSTITUTE
HENDERSON, NORTH CAROLINA

Foreword

The pathways through high school are memorable ones. We hope that through this book, we have portrayed a span of these pathways to the future upon which each of us travels.

Education is in itself a wide and heavily traveled pathway - each leading to some goal set by those who are traveling upon it.

Just as some roads are unpaved, so are some pathways to success unpaved. There are many rough and threatening sections. However, if the goal is kept in view, all difficulties can be surmounted, and the pathway will have served its purpose of furnishing a means of guidance.

We are proud of our faculty who are the guideposts along our pathway through high school. Without them our trip would be futile.

With all these things in mind, we present to you the 1964 PANTHER.

John F. Kennedy
35th President of the United States of America

"And so, my fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you: ask what you can do for your country."

This quotation has become a famous saying for John Fitzgerald Kennedy, who loved people and because of his shared love and sacrifice, with admiration, we dedicate this annual.

Parents

we salute you and dedicate this edition of the 1964 annual to you to show our love.

Mrs. Valeria J. Alston

Mrs. V. J. Alston, through her untiring efforts and unselfish service, has been a guiding light for all who know her. For the six years she has taught at H.&I. she has dedicated herself to her students in the field of Science. Though quiet and reserved, Mrs. Alston is a symbol of strength and fine womanhood to her students.

Editor-in-Chief

The 1964 graduating class has preserved its most pleasant experiences while at Henderson Institute. Also, we have attempted to unfold to you the very atmosphere of our campus and school life.

As we glance back in retrospect to the school year 1960-1961, we see among us a change in attitude, a more serious concern about others, and a much more serious concern about ourselves. We have met failures, successes and joys and have taken each in stride.

We wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to our parents, principal and faculty for their love and guidance in helping us to attain one of our goals in life.

We hope that this production will serve its purpose.

Sandra Johnson
Editor

Please recall with us the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '64 while turning these pages. We would be more than content knowing that we have fully satisfied your thoughts of H.I.

We pause for a moment to pay a tribute to you who have played a vital part in this book. You will see many familiar faces throughout the book. These faces have inspired us to give you the best annual of Henderson Institute.

We truthfully hope that each of you will find that special something that we have placed in "The 1964 Panther."

Emogene C. Spencer
Co-Editor

The members of the Senior Class of 1964 are proud to leave with you their memories of Henderson Institute in this 16th volume of the 1964 "Panther."

Some of the unique events of the past four years have been important and some of little value. The best moments we have experienced here can never be relived except in our annual.

We sincerely hope that the 1964 "Panther" will cause each of you to work to preserve the customs, traditions and ideals of our school.

ADMINISTRATION

To the class of 1964

Dear Seniors:

As I was contemplating this letter, a tragic historical event occurred - the assassination of the thirty-fifth president of the United States, John F. Kennedy. This is significant because of his youth and his dramatic interest in education and physical fitness.

John F. Kennedy was dedicated to the strong and purposeful leadership of the United States. He was a man who gave an enviable image as a profound leader, a devoted and loyal family man, and an unwavering Christian seeking the Master religiously.

Is not this image a challenge to the Graduating Class of 1964?

The objectives sought by the president during his youth as he grew in stature were: to become well educated, to have a purpose or goal, to manifest strength of character at all times and to be loyal to his God, his country, and to his family.

The world awaits your eagerness, ambition, and dedication. Press on to the highest level of your capacity.

Sincerely,

L. E. Spencer,
Principal

MRS. M. M. AVENT

MR. C. V. KNIGHT

To all readers of this annual and members of the Henderson Institute Community, I hope you have "love" and "respect" for your institution. This institution stands as a "symbol of light" for all desiring this experience.

Your school has sought to enrich the quality of your life. It has attempted to develop to the utmost all of your latent powers. It has attempted to help you reach your goals by self-realization and self-fulfillment.

By having this experience on Henderson Institute's campus, your education should give you a richer life in meaning and interests, knowledge, and vision, and service to all mankind. The eternal flame still burns, light your candle.

M. M. Avent,

Our Assistant Principal

Mr. Clarence Vernon Knight is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Knight of Henderson. He attended elementary and high school at Henderson Institute.

After graduating from high school, he entered Hampton Institute where he graduated four years later as an honor student with a Social Studies major. Mr. Knight's graduate work was completed at Pennsylvania State University where he received the Master of Education degree in Administration and Social Studies.

Mr. Knight has taught at Lincoln Heights in Wilkesboro, North Carolina. Presently, he is employed at Henderson Institute as a teacher of History and Boy's Counselor.

His duties consist of assisting the principal with attendance reports and discipline problems. The students admire Mr. Knight and refer to him as "Boss." Most student problems are solved because of his interest and love for the students.

Class History

Enlightening the dawn of a beautiful fall morning in September 1960, a vivacious group of boys and girls entered the terminal of Henderson Institute as freshmen aviators. As we boarded the jet plane of secondary education, with zealous ambition, we buckled our seat belts and pushed forward the starter of our flight toward future graduation. We had four captains to guide us safely through our first year of flight. They were Mrs. V. J. Alston, Mr. W. H. Lewis, Mr. J. H. McDougle, and Mr. H. Rouse.

One year later we shifted into the second stage of our journey. This stage constituted many wonderful experiences. Several of the passengers represented us well by their outstanding participation in football, basketball, baseball, and track. The sophomore aviators were well represented and they served well. A fortunate few served as waiters and waitresses at the Junior-Senior Prom. We terminated this portion of our flight toward a diploma under the leadership of Mrs. Alston, Mr. Brown, Mr. Ford, Mr. July, Mr. Lewis, Mr. McDougle, and Mr. Rouse.

An extremely thrilling excursion during our flight was our Junior year. As we fueled up with more opportunities and prestige, we set out to make this year a most memorable one. Our proudest contribution was the prom. We worked diligently and untiring to make our prom "Oriental Gardens," the best ever witnessed. This year, as in previous years, we were well represented in all extra-curricular activities. Under the direction of Mrs. Alston, Mr. Ford, Mr. July, Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Rouse, we safely ended our third year of travel.

As the sun set upon our journey, our jet plane surged through the clouds, transported us to the most glorious point of our trip. We were now seniors, the leaders, and extremely proud to bear that distinguished title. This was a busy year; overflowed with studying, deciding upon careers filling application blanks, taking tests, producing the annual, practicing for the senior play, being debutantes, and other social events. As certain as bloom the flowers in spring, we too, must open our petals and flutter away into a new world and new mood of life.

Dorothy Mable Lewis
Class Historian

Class Will

We, the Senior Class, of the City of Henderson, County of Vance, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will heretofore made by us.

- To our Principal: We leave our devoted thoughts of his wonderful supervision during our years at Henderson Institute, and our hopes for a most prosperous future.
- To our Guidance Counselors: We leave our gracious thanks for their courteous, mental, physical, and social guidance during our moments of need.
- To the Faculty: We leave you an enormous bottle of Excedrin to relieve you of the aches and pains that we have caused you doing our long years of stay here.
- To the Juniors: We leave you our hope that you will use your time wisely. The future holds numerous opportunities for you but you will have to be prepared to challenge them.
- To the Sophomores: We leave you the terrible problem of choosing a theme and mastering the expenses for the Junior-Senior Prom.
- To the Freshmen: We leave you our most sincere wish that you will make the next three years the most enjoyable of your high school career.
- To the Lower Classmen: We leave you clocks that will give you the correct time so that you won't be late for Miss Hicks, Mrs. Bullock, Mr. Collett, and Mr. Randolph.

In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class, have set our hands and seal hereto this 3rd day of February in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred sixty-four. (1964)

Class Song

Tune: Danny Boy - by Betty Cheek

The Time has come
That we must make our parting,
With burning tears
Of this sad day we sing

For now the highways of life
Unknown await us,
We know not whether they be of
Gold or dust.

REFRAIN

Dear H & I we leave now your
Noble grounds,
To pace anew the challenges
We've found,
But we shall ne'er forget your
Halls, your high ideals,
Dear H & I with thankful hearts we kneel.

Class Poem

Composed by Anita Patterson

Come poets, scientist, musicians, All - -
Raise your heads, this work for you.
Flounder not your years in weeds and thickets,
Forever covering a peace and a most sacred and profound truth.

Youth - break away and carve ambition - -
Thrust this shaft and fame will make it glow
We are here, a people and hands to work
For the generation coming
From us - to look upon the steps we take.
Let us each day take a small one
And a light to show the way.

Ours is the challenge;
There is force and there is power
In our very hands this present day,
As we start for a great service each day by day,
The shafts will glow fuller by our light.

Strive for service, purpose, through battles lost and won
And through our efforts contribute to the welfare of the Common man.

Youth - the time is nigh!

Class Prophecy

"64" Are you wondering what the senior class of 1964 will be doing about "64" ten years from now? Let us now take a look into the "years of tomorrow."

Bettye Cheek designing clothes for the First Lady, Mrs. Ethel Kennedy;
Sylvester Bullock as a star fullback for the Green Bay Packers;
Anita Patterson has just signed a $1,000,000 contract with Warner Bros. for the leading feminine role in "Cleopatra;"
Joseph Allen, competing with Tarzan, Samson, Hercules, Superman, won the title of
"Mr. Universe;"
Dorothy Lewis, a surgeon at Duke Hospital in Durham, North Carolina; Frank Vass, decathlon winner in Paris, France. He was out in the past Olympics because of a fractured toe and a broken knee;
Edith Glover, a private secretary to President Robert Kennedy with a starting salary of $25,000 a year;
Johnny Alston, a famous architect, has just finished a fabulous home for Little Stevie
Wonder in the town of Zudebakahia, which is located just due east of the Mississippi;
Anna Backett, has been crowned Miss America 1975; the first of her race to win a high coveted award;
Avont Massenburg has made his Metropolitan debut in New York City before a crowd of 5,000,000;
Nancy Perry has opened a dancing school in Australia; some of her students include
Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire;
Walter and Marjorie Brame have just returned from Pakistan where they conferred with the president on foreign affairs;
Emogene Spencer has designed a new hair style for "slender people." It took her 40 days and 40 nights to compose her new formula.
Joseph Brandon, a stunt driver for "Stoney Burke;"
Jean Carol Allen, a comedienne of her new show, "An Evening with Carol;"
Roy Grant, a football coach at A & T College in Greensboro, N.C.;
Sandra R. Johnson, a famous high fashion model and Mrs. C. A. Lindsay;
William Burwell, instructor of art at North Carolina College at Durham, North Carolina;
Hedy C. Hunt, lab assistant to Professor "Ecky," her husband at Bubbles University;
Stanley Hanks, editor-in-chief of "Esquire" magazine;
Annie Marable, instructor in Home Economics at Woman's College, Greensboro, North Carolina.
